Civic Stewardship Award:

An Award of Merit to an individual or organization that has made a significant contribution to the built environment of the St. Louis region and/or to further the goals and objectives of the St. Louis A.S.L.A.

The qualifications for the award include the following:

- 1: One (1) page letter 8 ½"x11" describing the merits of the individual or organization.
- 2: Optional: brochures, photographs, graphics, files, etc....which illustrate the merits of the individual or organization.

The Robert Goetz Award for Distinguished Career in Landscape Architecture:

The Robert E. Goetz Award for Distinguished Career in Landscape Architecture is to acknowledge the career of a local landscape architect who has practiced the profession with integrity, recognition and excellence. The award is not an annual award, rather the award will be awarded to worthy candidates as determined by the qualifications submittals and discretion of the Executive Committee.

The award is named for Robert Goetz, FASLA founder and principal of Robert E. Goetz and Associates. Mr. Goetz has enjoyed a distinguished career in landscape architecture in the Saint Louis region for over 40 years. He has also been an ardent promoter of the profession. He was elected a Fellow by the American Society of Landscape Architects in 1992.

The qualifications for the award include the following:

- 1: Practice of landscape architecture in private or public sector for a minimum of twenty five years.
- 2: Licensed landscape architect in Missouri or other state. Licensure in good standing with the state, void of claims and violations of state ordinances regarding the practice of landscape architecture.
- 3: Member of the American Society of Landscape Architects
- 4: Significant service in promoting the profession through teaching, volunteer efforts, and service as a member or officer in the St. Louis Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects.
- 5: Nomination letters from a minimum of five references.

Nominations for the Civic Stewardship Award and the Goetz Award are due on October 16, 2006, by 5:00 p.m.

Award nomination packages should be sent, by the above date and time, to the following address:
